COMMENTS OF NOKIA INC. IN SUPPORT OF T-MOBILE REQUEST FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE COMMENTS

Nokia Inc. ("Nokia") respectfully submits these brief comments in support of the request of T-Mobile USA, Inc. ("T-Mobile") that the Federal Communications Commission ("FCC" or "Commission") extend the deadline for filing comments in the above-captioned proceeding by 90 days, to October 7, 2008.¹

We concur with the comments of T-Mobile, AT&T Inc. (AT&T), United States Cellular Corporation ("USCC"), the Rural Telecommunications Group, Inc. ("RTG, Inc."), the National Cooperative Telecommunications Associations ("NCTA"), Ericsson Inc ("Ericsson"), Sony Ericsson Mobile Communications (USA) Inc. ("SEMC") and others that the 90-day extension requested would allow the Commission to conduct testing to evaluate the interference issues raised by the service rules it proposed in its Further Notice of Proposed Rulemaking ("Further Notice") or allow interested parties to conduct their own testing and submit this needed analysis to the Commission as part of this proceeding.

Sincerely,

Cecily Cohen
Director, Government and Industry Affairs
